

1 SHEPPARD, MULLIN, RICHTER & HAMPTON LLP
2 A Limited Liability Partnership
3 Including Professional Corporations
MICHAEL H. AHRENS, Cal. Bar No. 44766
STEVEN B. SACKS, Cal. Bar No. 98875
JEFFREY K. REHFELD, Cal. Bar No. 188128
4 Four Embarcadero Center, 17th Floor
San Francisco, California 94111-4106
5 Telephone: 415-434-9100
Facsimile: 415-434-3947
6 Email: mahrens@sheppardmullin.com
ssacks@sheppardmullin.com

7 Attorneys for The Billing Resource, dba
8 Integretel

9 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
10 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
11 SAN JOSE DIVISION

12
13 THE BILLING RESOURCE, dba
Integretel, a California corporation,

Case No. 07-CIV-5758-RMW

14 Debtor-Plaintiff-Appellee

15 v.

16 FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION, et al.

17 Defendant-Appellant

18
19 On Appeal from the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California,
20 No. 07-52890-ASW, Adversary Proceeding No. 07-5156

21 PLAINTIFF-APPELLEE THE BILLING RESOURCE, dba INTEGRETEL's
22 OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO SHORTEN BRIEFING SCHEDULE AND ACCELERATE HEARING DATE

1 I.2 INTRODUCTION

3 The Billing Resource d/b/a Integretel (“Integretel”) opposes the Federal Trade
 4 Commission’s (“FTC”) motion to shorten briefing schedule and accelerate hearing date
 5 (“Motion”) of the FTC’s motion for a stay pending appeal.¹ There is no urgency to having
 6 this motion heard on shortened time. There is no reason this motion for a stay pending
 7 appeal has to be heard in conjunction with the motion for stay pending appeal of the other
 8 preliminary injunction issued by the bankruptcy court. Integretel’s time to prepare its 9 opposition to the FTC’s motion should not be abridged by expediting the briefing schedule
 10 to Integretel’s inconvenience and disadvantage. The FTC’s motion does not comply with 11 the Local Rules, as it is not accompanied by a declaration required under Local Rule 6-12 3(a).

13 II.14 DISCUSSION15 A. No Urgency Justifies an Expedited Briefing Schedule

16 The FTC offers no basis for expediting the briefing schedule in this matter. Instead
 17 the FTC’s Motion argues the merits and fails to offer any coherent rationale for having an 18 expedited hearing. The Motion notably fails to mention that there is no urgency with 19 regard to this appeal whatsoever as it does not disclose to the Court that in connection with 20 issuing the injunction at issue here, which prevents the FTC and the federal Receiver from 21 initiating contempt proceedings against Integretel, the bankruptcy court required Integretel
 22 to retain $1.7 million of Integretel’s funds in a blocked bank account pending order of the 23 court. The FTC and the Receiver are fully protected unless and until the bankruptcy court
 24 orders release of that money—at which time they could seek appellate review or a stay.

25
 26
 27 ¹ Pursuant to Local Rule 6-3(c), this Opposition is filed by the third court day after receiving the Motion and is accompanied by the Declaration of Steven B. Sacks.
 28

1 The FTC has no cause to initiate contempt proceedings against Integretel, as the funds it
2 claims are being held pursuant to the bankruptcy court's order. Put another way, the 3 preliminary injunction issued by the bankruptcy court maintains the status quo and the 4 FTC has no basis to alter it; even if it did, there is no reason it needs to occur on an 5 expedited basis.

6 B. The Two Motions Need Not Be Heard at the Same Time

8 The FTC claims that there will be "significant judicial economy" associated with 9 having the hearing on this motion for a stay pending appeal conducted at the same time as 10 the hearing on its earlier motions for a stay and for a change of venue. While the motions
11 have come to this Court from the same bankruptcy case, there is no reason they need to be 12 heard on the same day. The FTC has submitted a separate brief on each motion for a stay
13 pending appeal and Integretel has already filed a brief opposing the first motion. It will
14 have to file a separate brief opposing this motion. The issues with regard to each motion
15 are not identical, as in one order the bankruptcy court temporarily enjoined prosecution of 16 the FTC's enforcement action against Integretel and, in the other, based on additional 17 hearings and findings and conclusions, it prevented the FTC and the Receiver from seeking 18 contempt findings against Integretel.

19 The motion for change of venue does not afford any basis for having one hearing on 20 the other two motions, as the change of venue motion is procedurally improper and 21 substantively meritless. In addition, the court's decision on changing venue does not 22 depend on its decision regarding a stay pending appeal.

23 C. Integretel Should Be Afforded Sufficient Time for Its Opposition

25 The FTC filed its motion on Friday, November 30 and seeks to require Integretel to 26 file its opposition ten days later. During this period, Integretel has four motions set for 27 hearing in the bankruptcy court on December 7, 2007. Integretel's counsel is heavily
28

1 committed on this and other matters and thus would find it burdensome to complete an
2 opposition to the FTC's motion before December 14, 2007, the date it would be due if the
3 Motion is not granted.

4 Integretel's counsel was given no advance notice of the filing of this Motion by the 5 FTC and was not consulted with regard to whether Integretel would agree to an accelerated
6 hearing or shortened briefing schedule.

III.

CONCLUSION

Integretel respectfully requests that the Motion be denied.

10 | Dated: December 5, 2007

Respectfully submitted,

SHEPPARD, MULLIN, RICHTER & HAMPTON LLP

By /s/ Steven B. Sacks

STEVEN B. SACKS
Attorneys for Debtor/Plaintiff/Appellee
THE BILLING RESOURCE, dba INTEGRETEL.